

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF GENERAL MEETING - JUNE 15, 1993

The meeting was called to order by Joyce Sullivan at 7:20 P.M. Reading of the minutes was dispensed, they are read and approved at board meeting. The financial report was accepted as printed in the newsletter.

Joyce read a thank you letter from recipients of Hurricane Andrew quilters group that received quilting supplies from our guild.

Nutmeg Quilt Guild is having a workshop on Friday, July 16 on "Fresh Approaches to Template Patchwork". NSQG members were invited to participate.

Joyce announced the names of NSQG members that won ribbons at the Dutchess Quilt Show.

Board meeting will be held after the general meeting tonight to review the budget. The joint board meeting will be held on July 27 at Nancy Mirman's home.

Newsletter: Members advised to fill a "Name the Newsletter" slip and put it in the suggestion box.

Block of the Month: Joyce announced that the reject block quilt is still in progress. The last block of the month pattern was available from Gloria Hartley and members were advised that next year Gloria will provide some suggested border patterns.

Programs: No report

Education: Lauran Tyler asked members to sign up to work on "Post Cards" progressive quilt. Secret pals were revealed. Show of hands indicated there was interest in continuing this program.

Special Events: Linda Von Ahn announced that there is still room available for Vermont trip. The August 13 trip to New England has only 5 members signed up. Show of hands indicated there is interest in an October Lancaster trip.

Membership: 135 people at Salad Supper meeting.

Quilt Show: Liz Doyle made presentation of $6138.97 to Westchester/Putnam Hospice.

Hospitality: Joyce gave many thanks to Vickie Ramella and Barbara Yerks for their work during the year and the Salad Supper. Special thanks for the beautiful floral arrangements at Salad supper and past meetings.

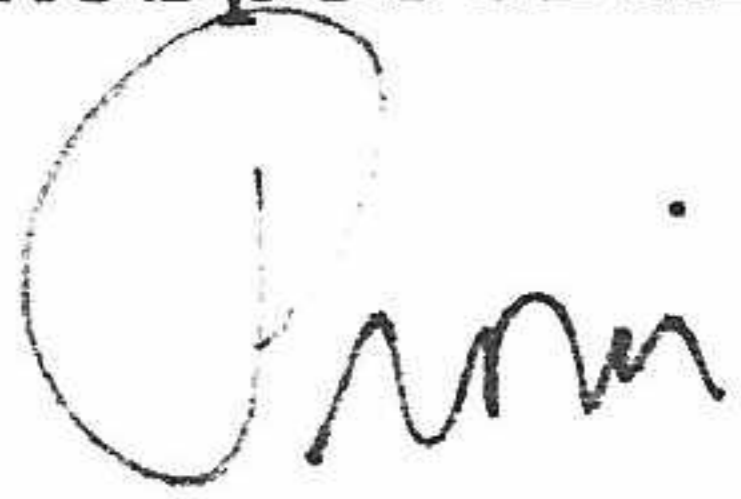

Old board was adjourned and presented with gifts from Joyce Sullivan. Joyce presented member Carolyn Koetse with quilt top as thank you and moving away gift. The gavel was then presented to incoming president, Nancy Mirman.

New board was introduced by Nancy Mirman.

Business meeting was adjourned at 7:50 P.M.

The business meeting was followed by an Auction and "Flea market" program.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

MINUTES OF GENERAL MEETING - MAY 18, 1993

The meeting was called to order by Joyce Sullivan at 7:43 PM. The financial report was accepted as printed in the Newsletter.

Apologies to the Challenge Committee—the board was confused with the Challenge rules not the Challenge Committee. Second apology to members that were incorrectly published in the newsletter. Correct information - Alice Garrard, best of show and Barbara Broshous, Viewer's Choice.

Education: Lauran reported workshops are over for this year. Another week-end workshop being planned for next November. Library needs all due books, no summer borrowing. Secret pals will reveal themselves via a signed card at next meeting.

Program: Adrienne indicated June program is detailed in the newsletter.

Boutique: According to Carolyn Kearney's report the boutique made $5200.

Trips: Linda Von Ahn reported NYC trip was fun. Vermont trip, no bus, must drive, show 7/7 - 7/11, stay at ski house. Plan a day trip to Massachusettes in August.

Quilt Show: Barbara Lerch's Quilt Show report will appear in the next newsletter. 135 people fed on Friday nite. Of total 50 ribbons - 34 went to guild members. Raffle grossed $6674.

Hospitality: Barbara Yerks announced the Salad supper in June, bring main dish salad, doors open at 5:30, supper at 6:00.

Membership: Barbara Broshous reported for Bernice Strauber. 147 members and 1 guest.

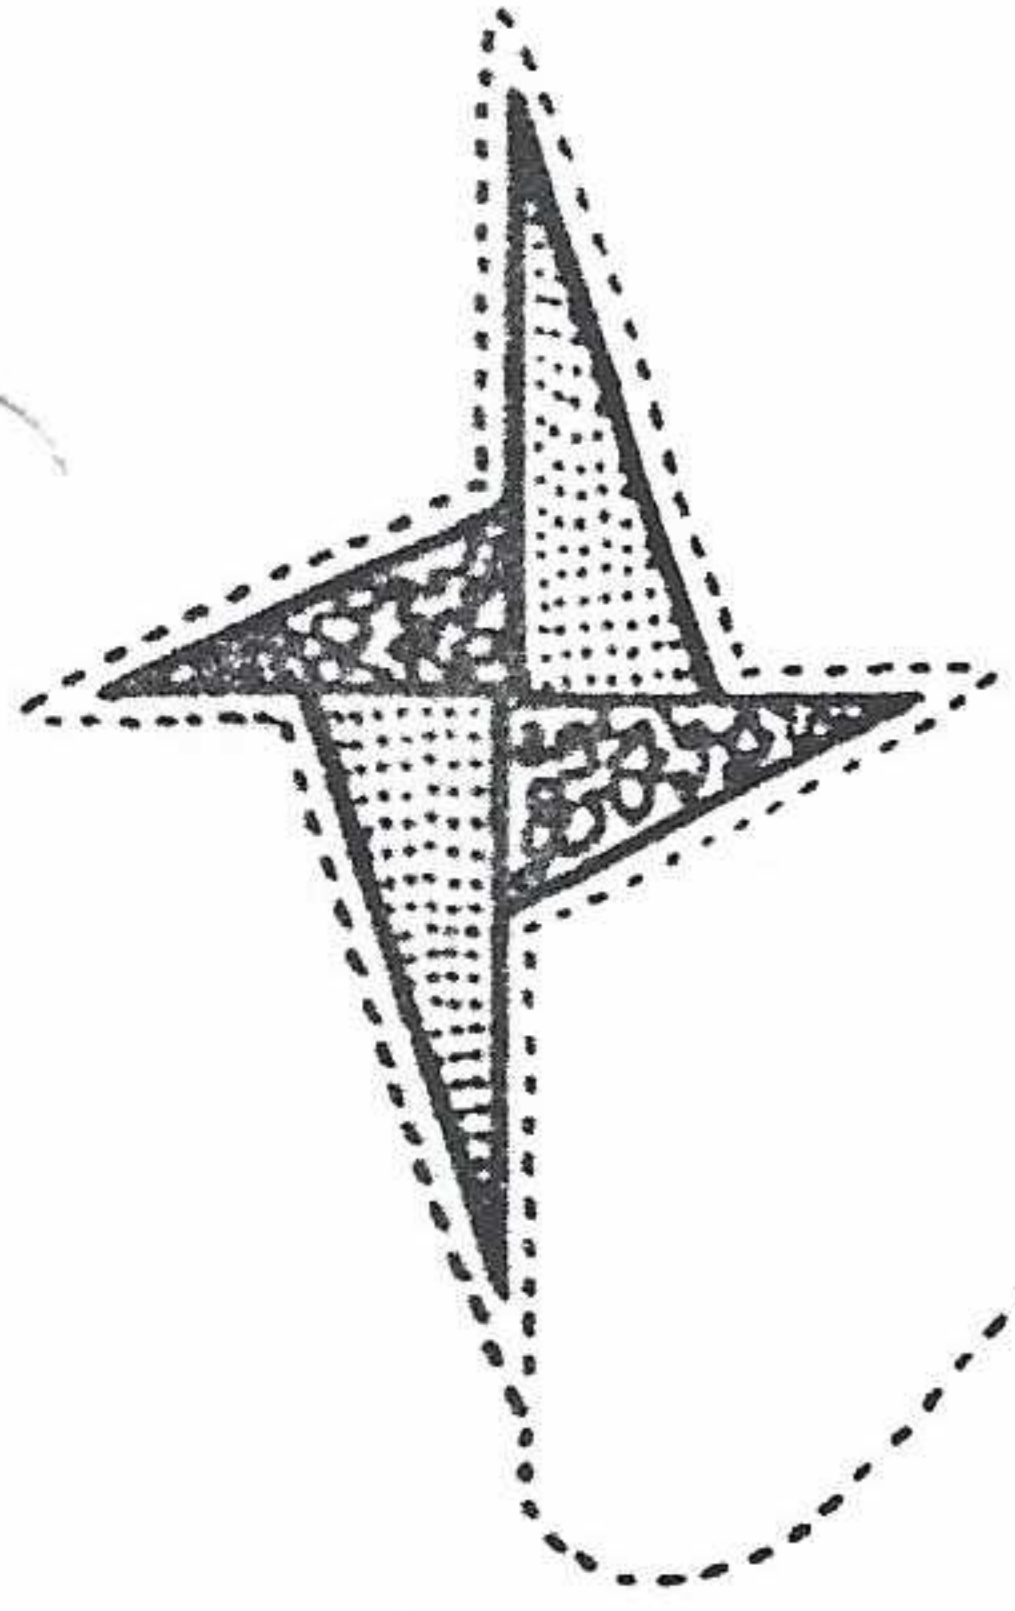

Old business: Official vote on slate - carried unanimously. New board members will take office at July joint meeting.

New business: Karen Hagert reported on new rules for ABC Quilt project. Now not only for AIDS babies but also for drug dependent, alcohol, and abused babies. Susan Lawrence caterer in Cross River requested a display of quilts or quilt items for sale at tent being set up on 5/29. Anyone interested to contact Joyce Sullivan for details.

Business meeting adjourned at 8:10 pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - APRIL 20, 1993

The general meeting was preceded by the guest speaker, Sheryl Robinson.

The business meeting was called to order at 8:58 PM by Joyce Sullivan. As usual, the reading of the minutes was dispensed, the minutes are read at the board meetings. The financial report was accepted as printed in the April newsletter.

MEMBERSHIP: No membership report was available.

SPECIAL EVENTS:

Trips: Linda Von Ahn indicated that the Lancaster trip was wonderful. Approximately 1000 yards were purchased and $18,000 was spent by the 34 bus trip participants. The trip to Anna Marie Tucker's was very nice. The NYC Great American Quilt Festival bus trip is scheduled for May 15 at $25. per person. A Vermont trip is scheduled for July 7-11. Carpools will be formed. The trip is 5 to 6 hours. The New England Show in Marlboro, Ma. is scheduled for August 13. This will be a day trip.

Boutique: Caroline Kearney wants boutique items delivered to JFK on Friday 4/30 at 3:30. If there are problems, call her at home to make other arrangements.

PROGRAMS: Adrienne Yorinks spoke about the May meeting. The speaker is Judith Reilly. At the ~~May~~^{June} meeting a flea market/auction will be held. Adrienne explained the details and indicated they would be published in the Newsletter.

RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: Virginia Avery will be at the Rye Art Center on Sat. 5/15. A show of hands indicated that a workshop involving a vest or jacket by Virginia Avery would be welcomed by the membership.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH: Gloria Hartley showed a sample of the way the block of the month patterns could be used in her Member of the Month presentation.

QUILT SHOW: Barbara Lerch indicated that 8 buses were scheduled to come to the Quilt Show on Saturday 5/1. Work assignment were available during meeting. ~~Kate~~ Pearson had recipes for casseroles available and needed additional commitments to bring food. Liz Doyle had more raffle tickets. Karen requested unfinished projects for the Work-in-Progress room. Susie Lawrence showed the blocks done for the block contest. Quilts are to be judged on 4/28.

Old business: Vote on the changes to the by-laws. Joyce explained why "social" needed to be included in wording. Simple majority by members in attendance would form quorum. Joyce presented vote to membership, motion to accept by Nancy Mirman, carried by majority, none opposed.

New business: Joyce Sullivan accepted Carolyn Koetse resignation. Carolyn is moving to North Carolina. Sandra Shapiro will continue as editor of the newsletter. Sandra announced that biographies for the pending board members are due by the next board meeting.

Sharon Wren introduced the slate of officers for 1993-94 presented by the nominating committee.

President:	Nancy Mirman
1st VP Programs	: Nancy Murphy
2nd VP Membership	: Millie Clinton
3rd VP Quilt Show	: Barbara Lerch
Recording Sec'y	: Betty Kelley
Corresponding Sec'y:	Provi Svensson
Treasurer:	Fran Schleif

Slate was presented to the membership, motion to accept by Adrienne Yorinks, motion was carried by majority, none opposed.

Joyce announced that the New England Museum was once again requesting donations to open up in a new location. The board decided to present a possible donation of $500 to the membership based on vote. Vote to accept was voted in by membership majority, minority opposed were out voted.

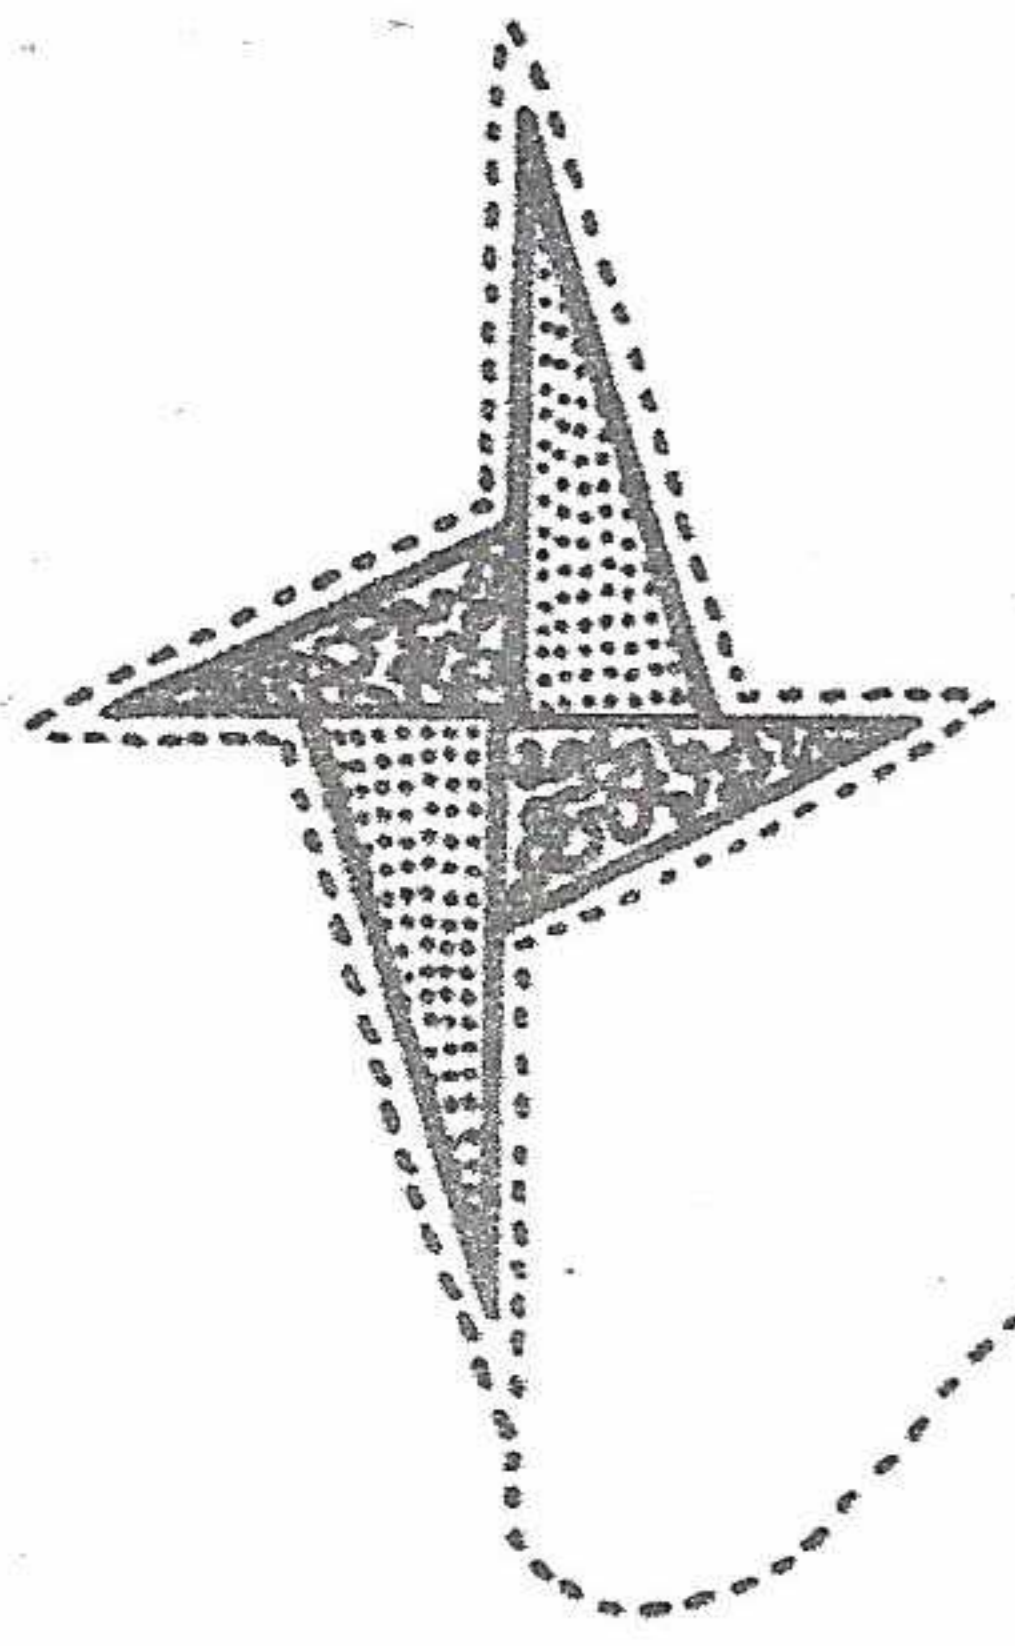

A new Challenge Quilt committee has been formed with new regulations.

Challenge Quilts are due to be turned into Joyce Sullivan tonight, get to Joyce by Friday. Joyce will take Challenge Quilt home of any member that will not be there at close of show to pick up quilt.

Meeting was adjourned at 9:40pm.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

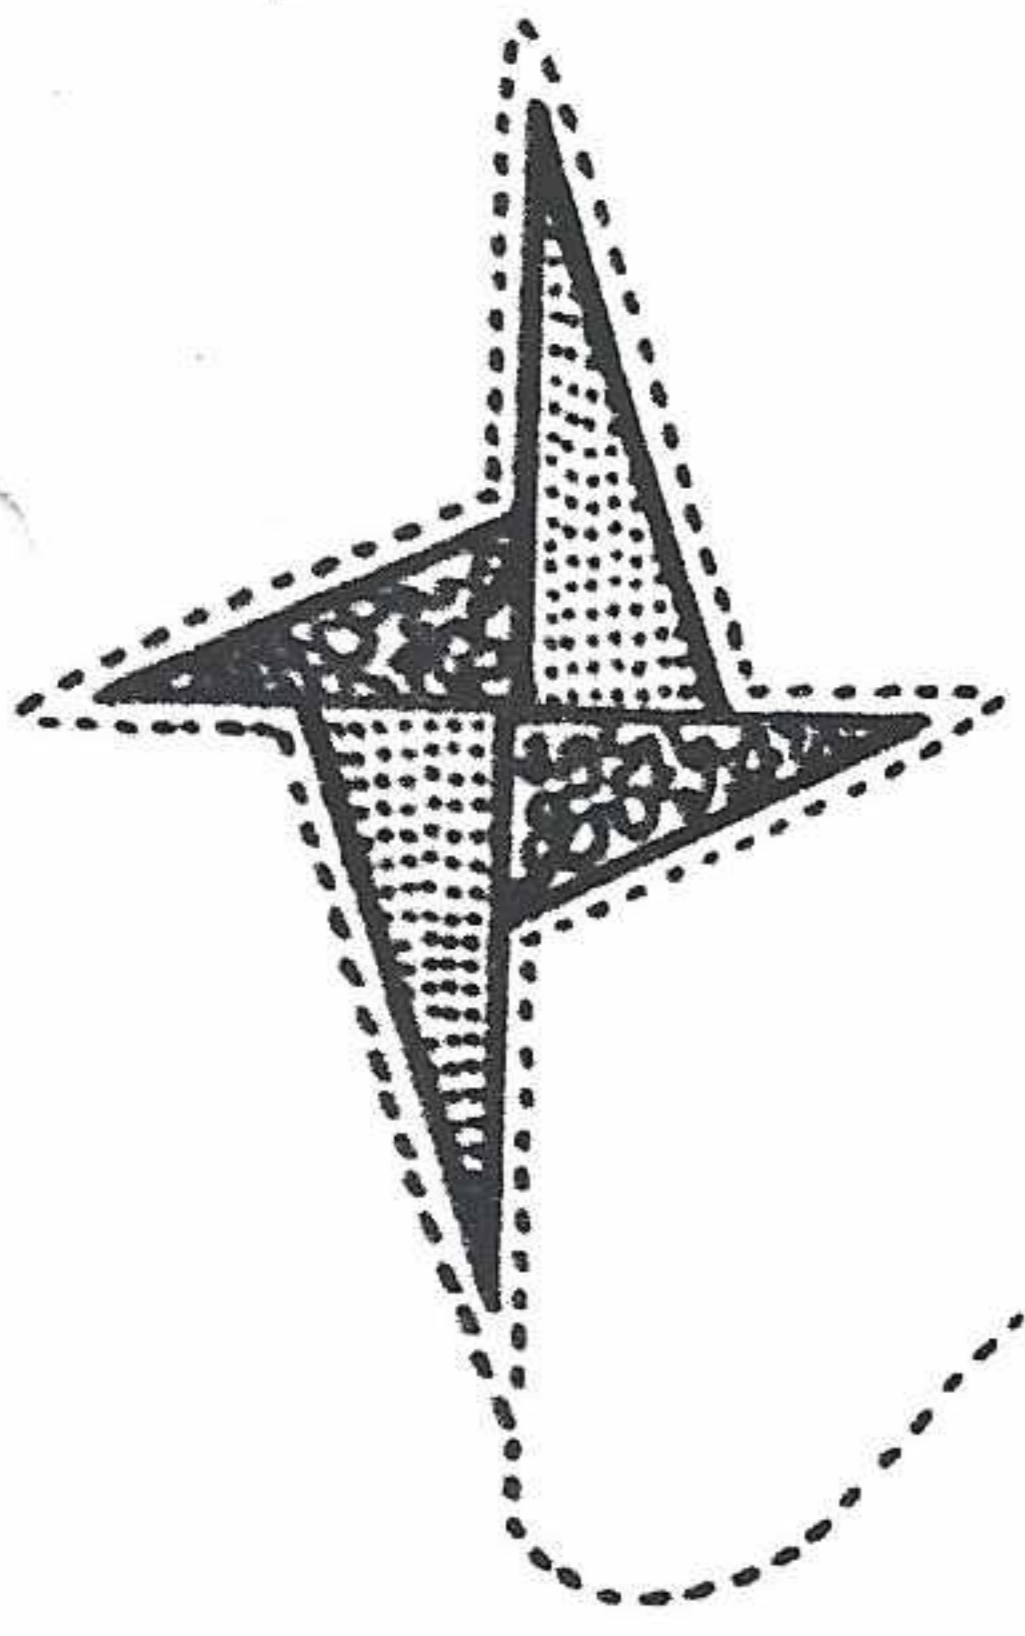

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

SLATE OF OFFICERS for 1993-94
as presented by nominating committee

President	Nancy Mirman
1st V.P. - Programs	Nancy Murphy
2nd V.P. - Membership	Millie Clinton
3rd V.P. - Quilt Show	Barbara Lerch
Recording Secretary	Betty Kelley
Corresponding Secretary	Provi Svensson
Treasurer	Fran Schleif

Nominating Committee:
Linda VonAhn
Sharen Wren
Joyce Sullivan

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - MARCH 16, 1993

The meeting was called to order at 8:05 pm by Joyce Sullivan. The minutes ~~of~~ the last General meeting were accepted as read at the Board meeting.

Announcements: Boces (White Pond) needs teacher for beginner quilters; Tessellations Workshop will be given in Ridgefield at cost of $22.; thank you to Carolyn Koetse for including patterns in Newsletter; please update and/or correct home address on membership list being passed during meeting.

PROGRAMS: A quilted wearable show was conducted before the General Meeting. The guest speaker is Virginia Avery.

RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: A thank you to Lauran Tyler for a wonderfully organized Super Saturday. The Landscape Quilts workshop (week-end workshop) will be given at the Lake Katonah Clubhouse instead of Lake Lincolndale.

HOSPITALITY: Please sign up to provide goodies for next general meeting.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Pick up for the Lancaster bus trip will be at 6:30 AM at Mahopac and 6:45 AM at Somers. We will be returning on Saturday, between 10-11 PM. The bus trip for the New York City Great American Quilt Festival is on Saturday 5/15, $30.

The list for the Quilt Show boutique will be available at the next general meeting. Joyce explained the boutique and how it works (quilts or quilt related items)

QUILT SHOW: ^{Pat} ~~Barbara~~ Rowan reported that the catalog was on its way. Maria indicated logo and materials for apron were available. Jean McAward requested "anything" in pastels for an exhibit. ~~Kay Pierson~~ ^{Kate Pearson} requested sign-ups for pot luck supper (workers, food, desserts). Wine for pot luck supper could be given to her at next meeting. Sue Andrews has registration forms ready for members planning to register a quilt for the show. Maddie Horr announced that the quilt was complete, binding was being sewn. Show pins will be ready for purchase at the next meeting. (purchase stub will appear in the next newsletter). Request for anyone willing to bring in an unfinished project for the work-in-progress room to do so.

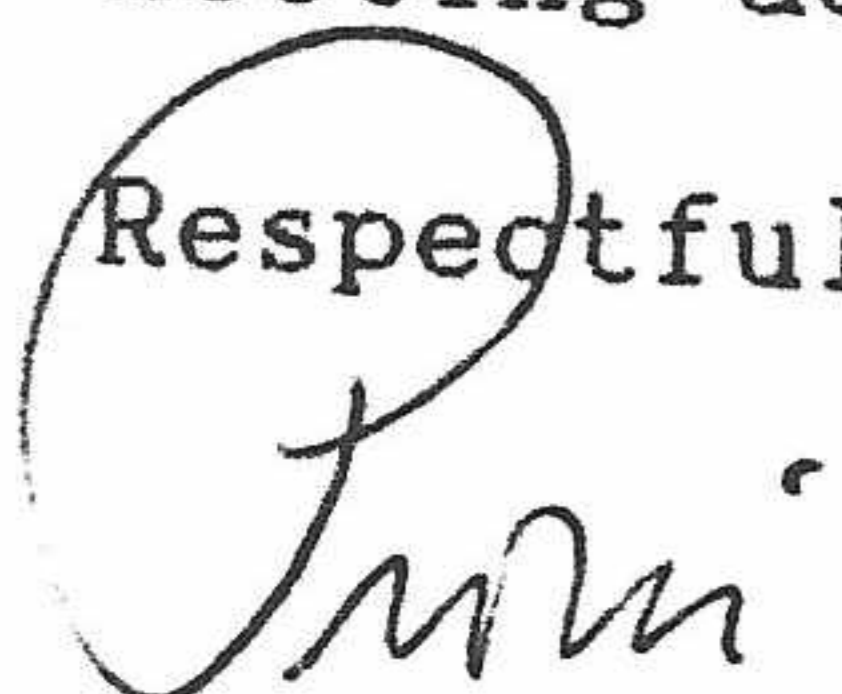

MEMBERSHIP: Bernice Strauber reported that there were 129 members and 5 guest at the March meeting.

Old business: reminder of announcement in newsletter for anyone interested in meeting about Tree Festival Super Saturday.

New business: Joyce announced she would have basic skill workshops at her home for anyone interested.

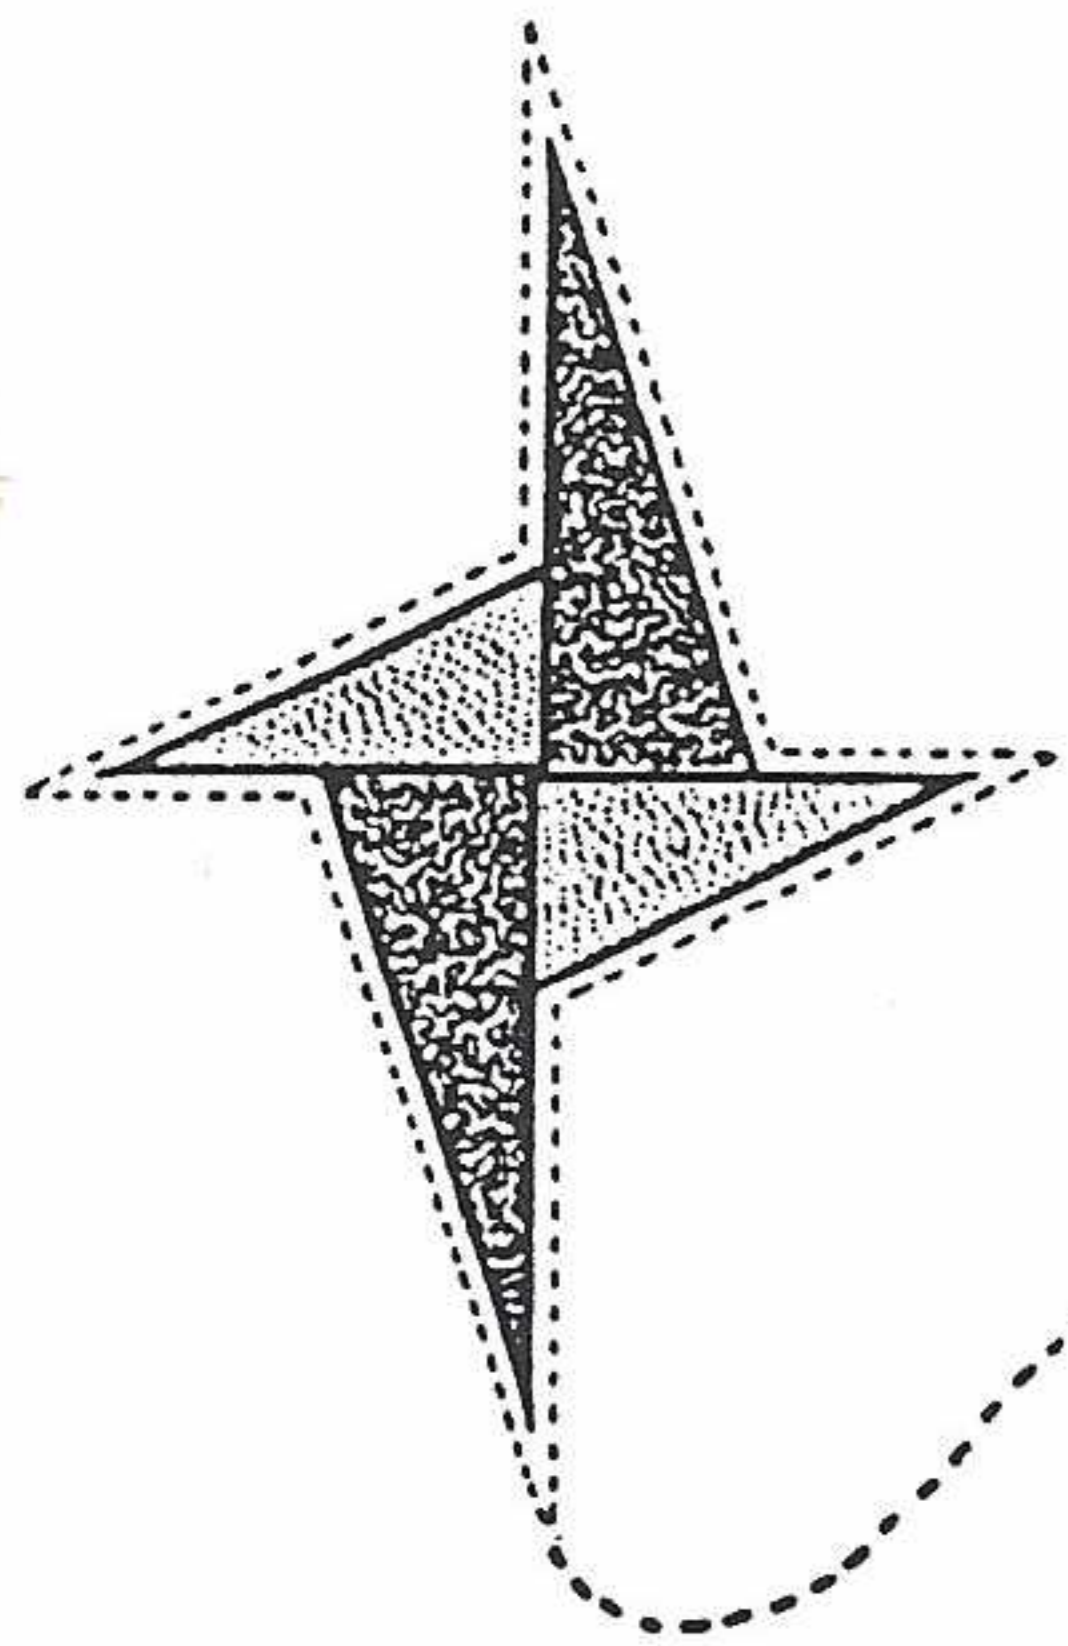

Meeting adjourned at 8:28 PM

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

The business meeting was followed by the fabric raffle, the regular raffle and the Virginia Avery Trunk Show.

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES GENERAL MEETING FEBRUARY 9, 1993

The meeting was called to order by Joyce Sullivan at 7:50PM. The minutes of the previous general meeting were accepted as read in the Board meeting. The Treasurer's report was accepted as written in the Newsletter. The following up-coming meeting dates were announced:

Board meeting	Feb. 22, at Joyce Sullivan's
Quilt Show Committee	March 2 at Barbara Lerch's
March General Meeting	March 16.

The following committee reports were offered:

Program: Debi Tong Gray announced that the March meeting would feature a trunk show of quilted clothing with Virginia Avery. Show and Tell that night will be restricted to wearables only. Members with clothing items to be shown were requested to arrive at 7PM on the night of the meeting so that the "fashion show" could be arranged.

Resource and Education: Lauren Tyler reviewed the workshops that were available for the rest of the year, and discussed the final arrangements for Super Saturday, to be held on February 27. She announced that name badge kits were available, as are a limited number of color wheel kits.

Special Events: Linda von Ahn announced that there are a limited number of seats still available on the bus for the trip to Lancaster. The trip will be a Friday/Saturday on this year, on March 26 & 27. Future plans include a van to Ann Marie Tucker's show upstate on April 18; a bus trip to the Great American Quilt show in New York City on May 15; and plans for the ski house to be available for lodging those who wish to go to the Vermont Quilt Festival this summer.

Quilt Show: Barbara Lerch announced that raffle tickets were available for all members at the meeting, as well as the sign-up board for the Quilt Show. The '94 quilt will be presented at the next meeting. Slides of the '92 show were shown.

Membership: Berniece Strauber announced that 160 members and 5 guests attended the meeting.

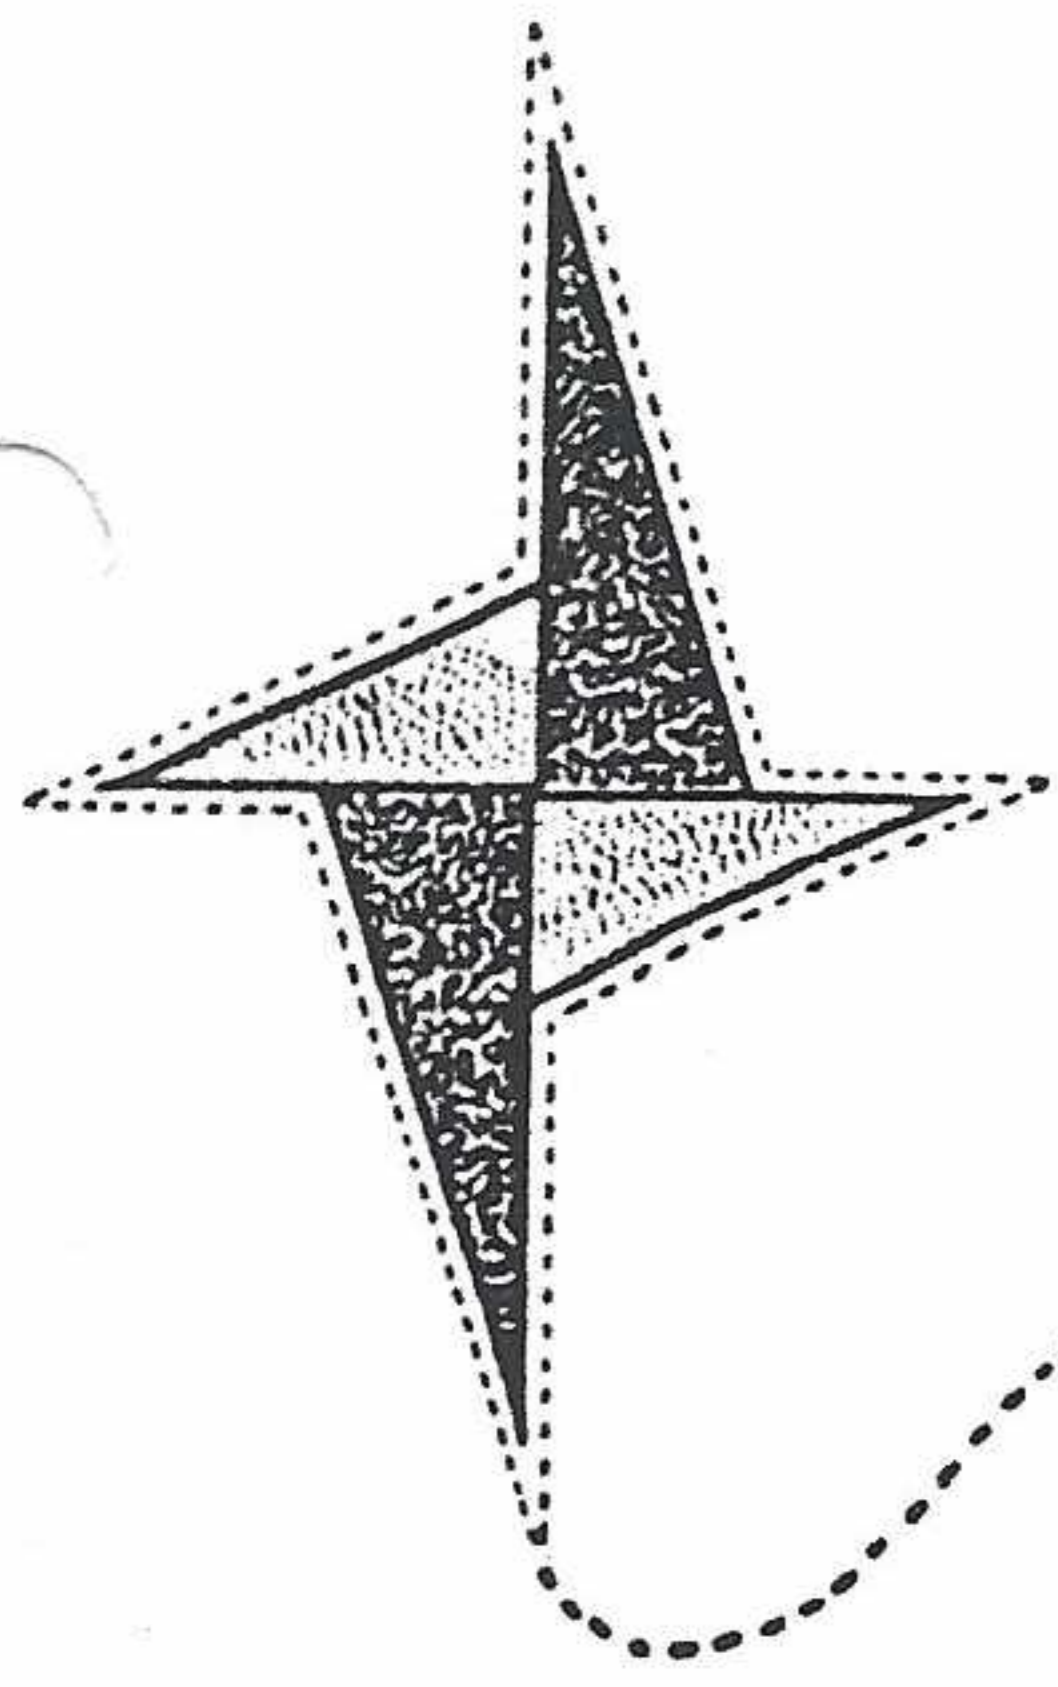

Old Business: Joyce issued a last call for donations to the Florida hurricane relief shipment. She announced that 15 members had signed New Year's Resolutions to finish 18 projects, and reported that she would still take resolutions from other members, if they wished to make them. The patterns for preemie gowns for AIDs babies, discussed at a previous meeting, are not available yet. Finally, Joyce asked for volunteers for the Nominating Committee, and asked members to call her with suggested names (even their own) for Board positions.

The business meeting was adjourned at 8:30PM. After the break, during which members viewed the Challenge Quilts, the fabric and general raffles were held while the Challenge votes were being tallied. The program was devoted to introductions of the members who had participated in the Challenge, and the stories of their quilts. The winners announced were:

First Place: Beyond Beginning: Abandoned Patchwork,
Abandoned Moon, by Mildred Clinton
Second Place: Window Garden, by Barbara Broshous
Third Place: Looking Through the Glass, by Angela
Kamen.

Respectfully submitted,

Barbara Sliter
Corresponding Secretary

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - JANUARY 19, 1993

The meeting was called to order at 7:47 by Joyce Sullivan. As usual the reading of the minutes was dispensed, they are read and approved at Board Meetings. The financial report was approved as printed in the January Newsletter.

A thank you for the early birds that gave a hand with the Quilt Show mailing. Pat Bartimoccia had surgery. Please send cards to keep her spirits up. Try to leave less space between parking spaces, additional space is needed. Board meeting on January 26. General Meeting next month is one week early on 2/9. Newsletter deadline is tonight-1/19. Request to sign up for hospitality.

RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: Lauran Tyler explained that spring workshops will be listed in the newsletter. Super Saturday on 2/27 at the Katonah Presbyterian Church, $5 includes lunch, 8 classes - details in newsletter. Please try to register by mail. Library featured book of the month, "Quilts in America" by Orlofski. Bulletin Board space for use by members was announced. Broadway Dolls have brought in $2700. and letters were received from the two AIDS program recipients.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH: Gloria Hartley asked members to look at samples that are available for viewing. Encouraged all to try. Patterns are simple enough for beginners. Projects will be displayed in next year's show.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Linda VonAhn spoke about the details of the Lancaster trip that is still in the works. We may join up with Nutmeg. Nutmeg's trip is scheduled to stay at Eden Resort, dinner at Miller's Smorgasbord on Friday nite, 3/26 and a Saturday tour and fabric shops stop.

CHALLENGE: Edith Pryor requested a show of hands of members planning to bring in a Challenge Quilt. Two have been finished and submitted. The Quilt must be finished by 2/8.

PROGRAMS: Debi Tong Gray asked Quilt Guild entrepreneurs to speak to Adrienne Yorinks during break about upcoming program.

QUILT SHOW: Barbara Lerch announced that raffle tickets were ready for distribution and were being given out by Liz Doyle. New quilt for next year in the works.

MEMBERSHIP: Bernice Strauber gave a count of members and guest present: 145 members, 7 guests.

OLD BUSINESS: Quilters Hurricane Relief effort on going at Sue's Fabrics and Country Quilter. Box with supplies will be sent out on Feb 5th. Please make drop offs before then.

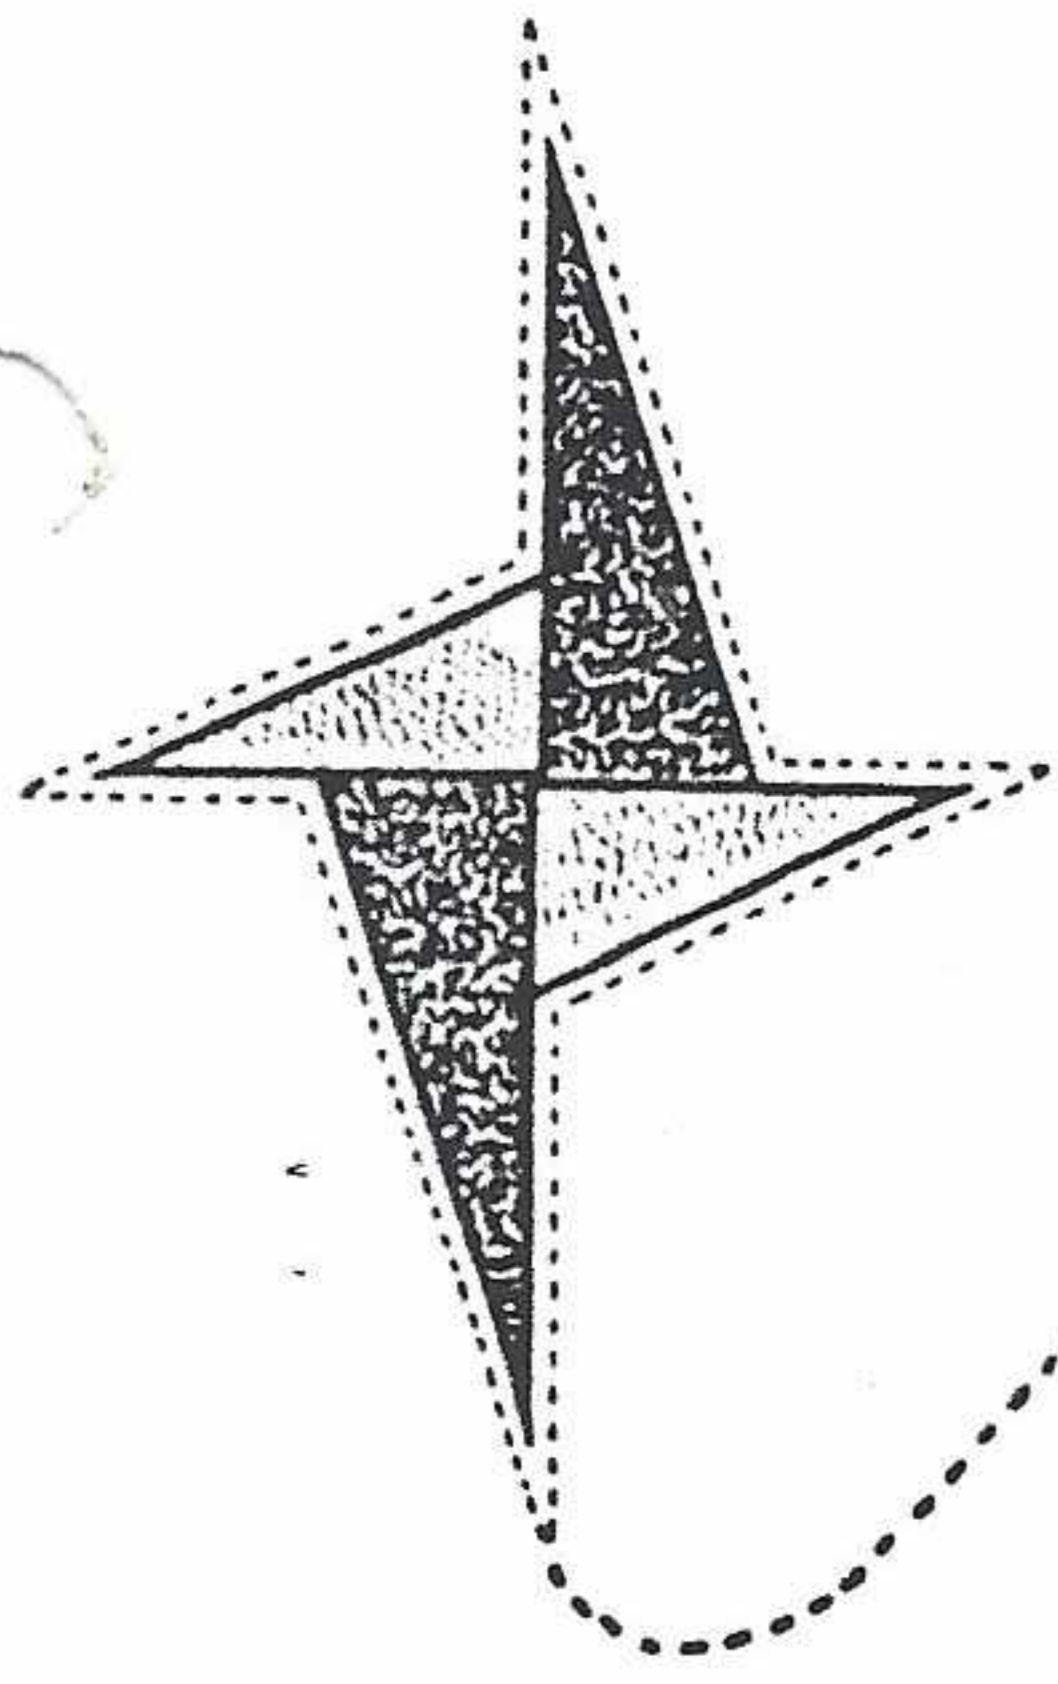

NEW BUSINESS: Interest in Japan Trip - September 1994, contact Joyce Sullivan.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:13 P.M.

Business meeting was followed by Fabric Raffle, Regular Raffle and a Hands-On program called, "Buttons, Baubles and Beads or After the New Year Come Tie One On With Us".

Respectfully submitted:

Provi Svensson

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - DEC 15, 1992

The meeting was called to order at 7:50 pm by Joyce Sullivan. As usual the reading of the minutes was dispensed, they are read and approved at Board Meetings. The financial report was approved as printed in the December Newsletter.

Joyce announced the following dates: Show committee 1/12, General Meeting 1/19, Board Meeting 1/26 and Newsletter deadline for January issue - 12/15 (tonight).

BLOCK OF THE MONTH: Gloria Hartley had no announcement, sheets for current and past month instructions available at Gloria's table.

HOSPITALITY: Need sign ups for January Meeting, so far no one has signed up to bring goodies.

RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: Mary Rossetti has Maryanne Fons class handouts. There were insufficient handouts at the class. Interest expressed for a charm and/or fabric exchange. Requested a volunteer to coordinate the exchange. Exchange would be given space at the Resource and Education table.

PROGRAMS: Adrienne Yorinks announced the January Hands-on meeting. More lecture/demonstrations than sewing but bring light sewing supplies. Teachers: Janet Broad, Gloria Hartley, Susan White, Pat Baker, Debi Tong Gray, and Kathy Schiano. The program is called "Button, Baubles and Beads or After the New Year Come Tie One On With Us."

SPECIAL EVENTS/TRIPS: Linda VonAhn explained this year's Lancaster Trip on Friday 3/26 and Saturday 3/27. Last year it was Saturday and Sunday but the shops are closed on Sunday, it's the last day of show so it's tired out and the Amish Vendors are not available. Possible price $120. includes bus, Lancaster Host accommodations and dinner on Saturday.

If anyone is interested in Williamsburg, VA Show contact Linda.

MEMBERSHIP: 128 members and 3 guests.

QUILT SHOW: Quilt being worked on, show notices are ready.

OLD BUSINESS: Our Tree Festival tree brought in $500. Challenge due in February. February meeting is one week early.

NEW BUSINESS: Donations will be accepted at the January Meeting for quilters who were hurricane victims. Bring books, patterns, scissors, needles, fabric, thread, etc. Forms for Quilt Show Block Contest are available from Susie Lawrence.

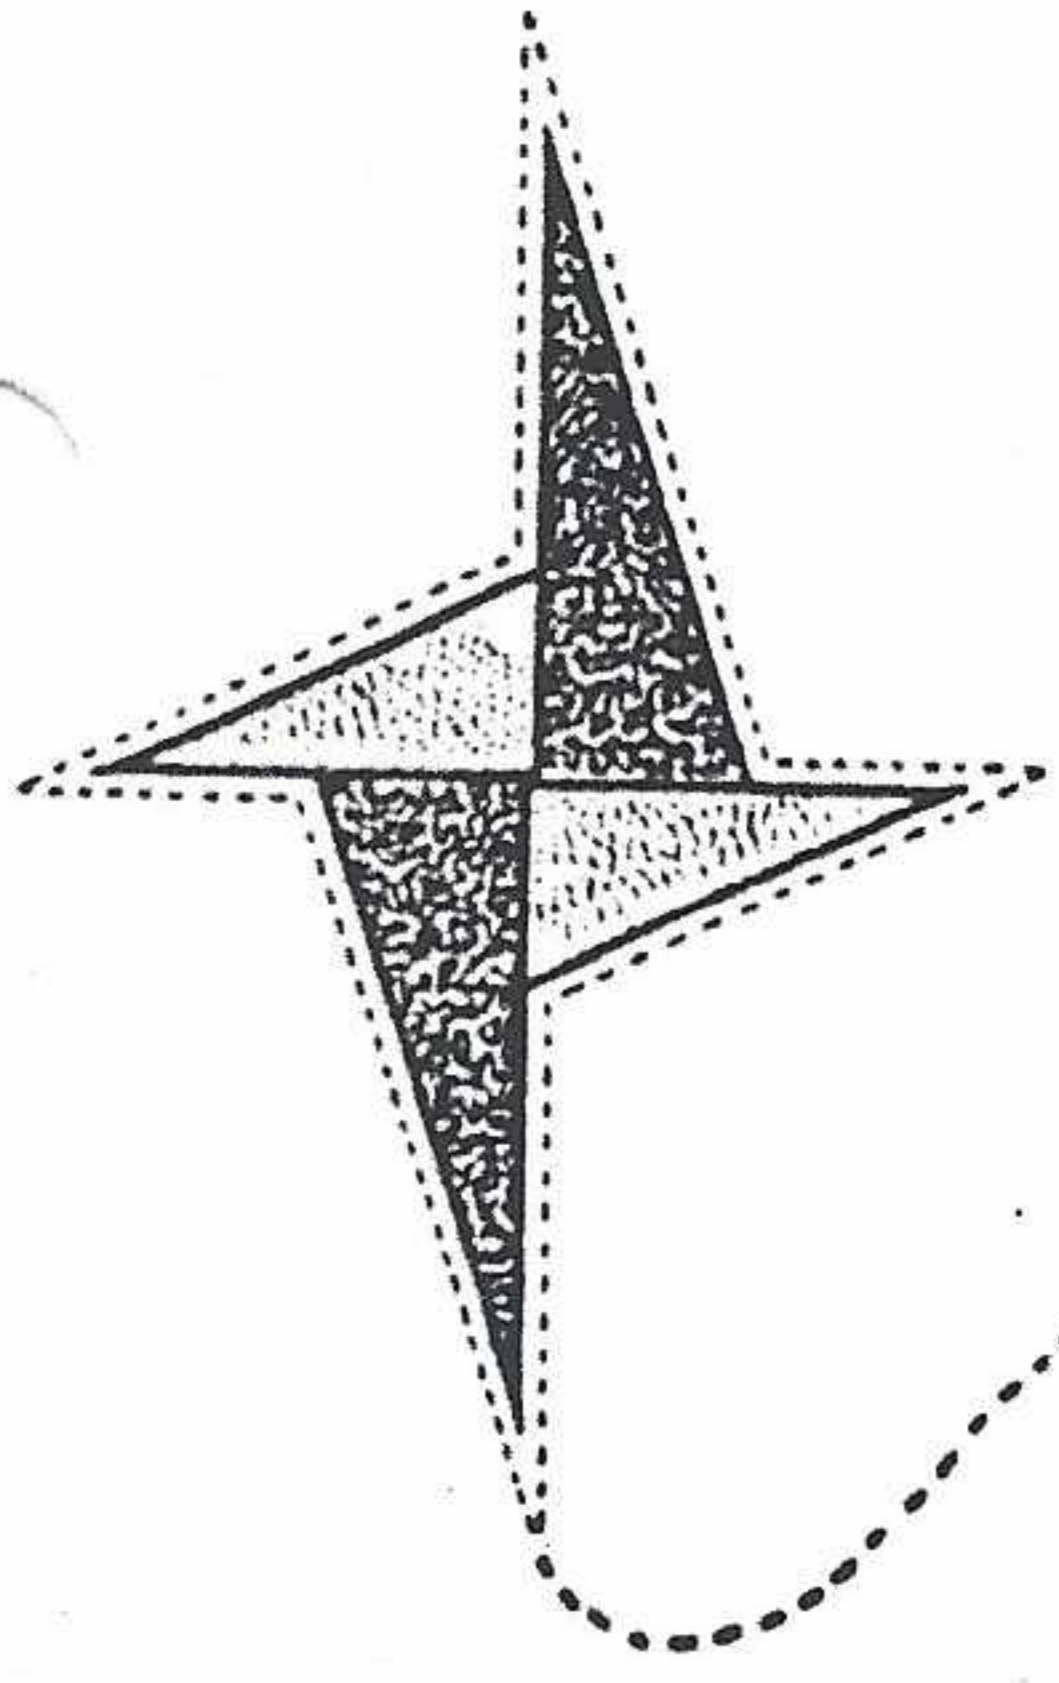

Meeting adjourned at 8:07 pm

Meeting was immediately followed by the fabric raffle, the regular raffle, show and tell, holiday grab bag, treat break and program presented by Anna Marie Tucker, "As Rip Van Winkle Slept" lecture and slide show.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

Joyce

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - NOVEMBER 17, 1992

The meeting was called at 7:45 by Joyce Sullivan.

Joyce announced that there is a 11/24 deadline for the December newsletter, thank yous to the members providing goodies and members remembering mugs.

Festival of Trees - need volunteers decorate at Carmel High School on Friday, December 4th. All members are welcomed to attend the crafts fair at Carmel High School on Saturday, December 5th.

Two guild members won prizes at quilts shows. Mary France received prize for color at the Westford Show. Nancy Mirman received 3rd prize for Applique at the Houston Show.

SPECIAL EVENTS: The Quilters Gathering in Massachusetts was a wonderful trip.

HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE: Caroline Kearney extended thanks to all that participated. $7100. was sold. Top seller was Pat Barker. Broadway Dolls were also sold.

PROGRAMS: In December Anna Marie Tucker will present "While Mr. Van Winkle Slept." Annual grab bag is also held at the December meeting, bring items under $5.00.

RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: Many thanks to Fons and Porter. The star workshop was a big success. Announcements of workshops and other on going projects included: Feb - Super Saturday, Progressive Quilt sign-up, Skill Bank Survey, Secret Pal - make sure to acknowledge.

MEMBERSHIP: Membership 152, Guests 7. Deadline to join before being eliminated from membership list is here.

QUILT SHOW: Ballots for Raffle Quilt Recipient were distributed. Each member with a recipient on the ballot were given opportunity to make presentation for their charity. Nominating member and charity as follows: Phyllis Solar - Caring Friends, Lauren Tyler-Community Center of Katonah, JoAnn Turrin-Hospice of Northern Westchester and Putnam, Sarah Aldrich - Women Shelter, Barbara Yerks-Week-End Center. After the balloting, Liz Doyle announced the winner of the Raffle Quilt proceeds as the Hospice of Northern Westchester and Putnam.

DUP
Announcement about Festival of Trees - volunteer needed to decorate tree on Friday, Dec 4th at Carmel High School. All members welcomed to attend Craft Show at Carmel H.S. on Saturday, Dec 5th.

DUP
Guild members receiving prize ribbons for Quilts:
Mary Franc prize for color at the Westford Quilters Gathering
Nancy Mirman 3rd prize for applique at the Houston Quilt Show

Reminder of Bad weather closing at schools. If Somer's School is closed later in the day listen to WVIP 106.3 FM/WVIP 1310 AM or WHUD 100.7 FM. Telephone calls to individual members will be made when cancellation is not clear via radio.

Library is running smoothly.

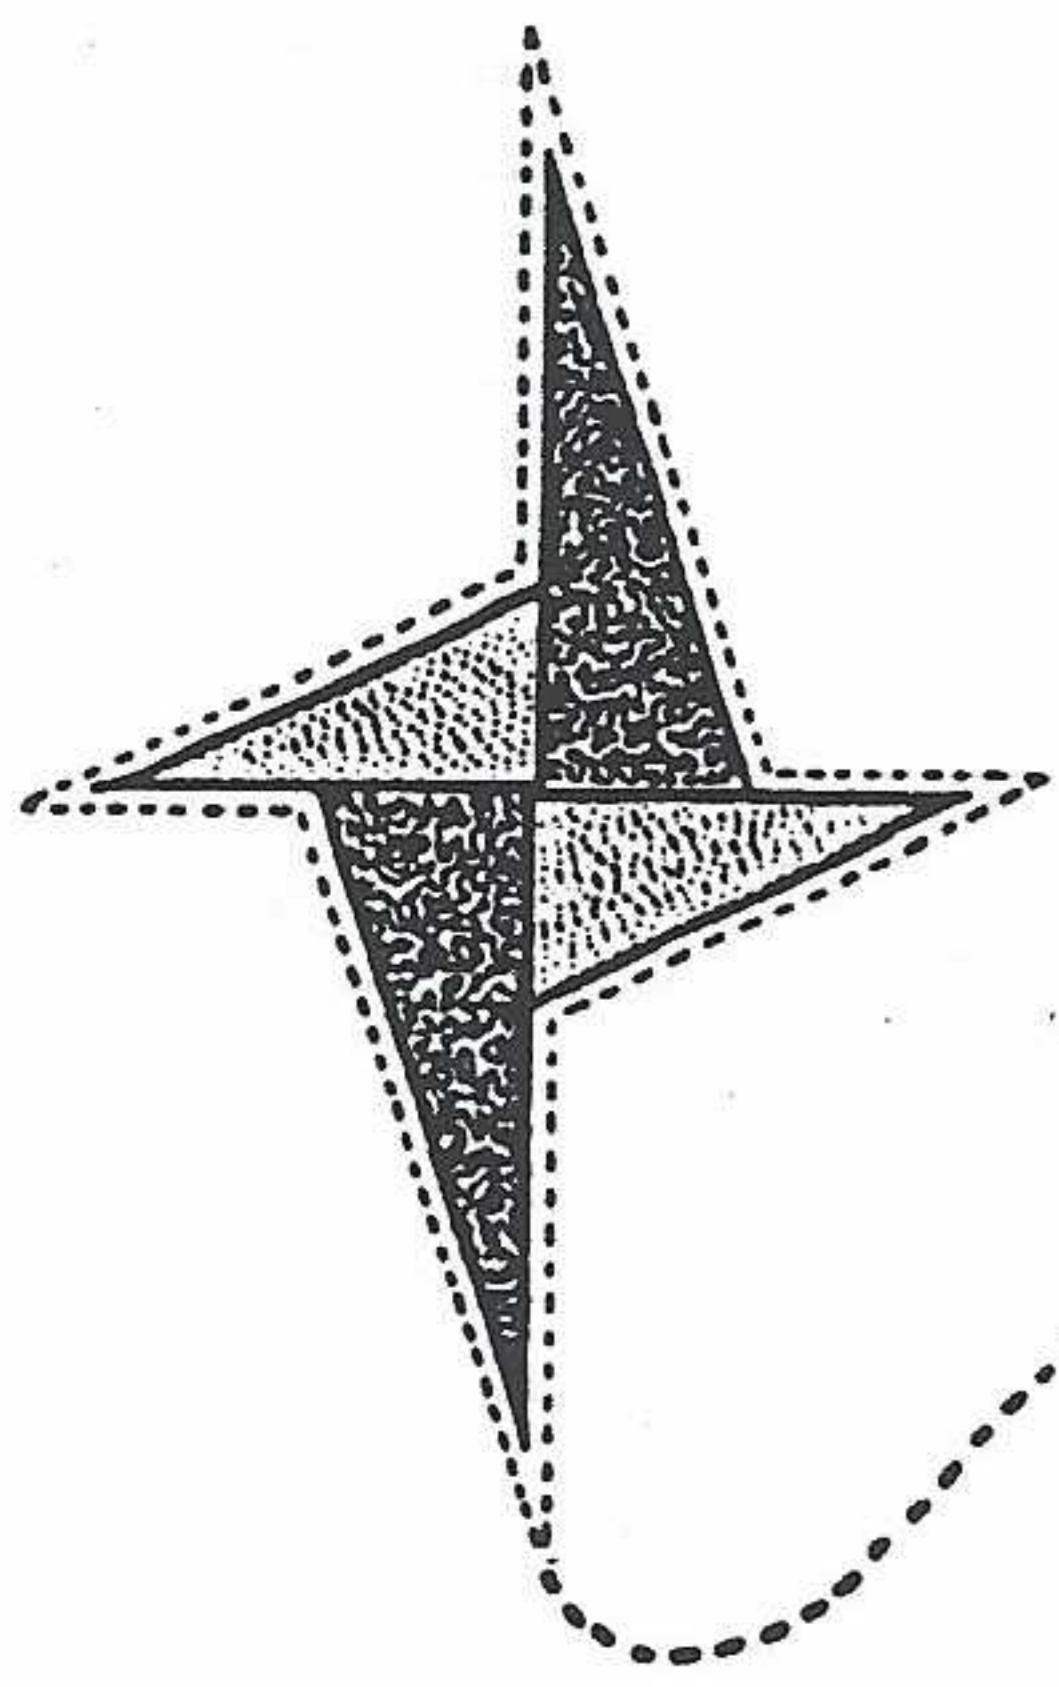

Announcement to remind members to use suggestion box. Suggestion to use a scissor system for completed projects was discussed but not feasible.

Meeting adjourned at 8:25 p.m.

Followed by fabric raffle, regular raffle and guest speakers program, Fons and Porter.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - OCT. 20 1992

The meeting was called at 7:40 PM by Nancy Mirman.

Nancy announced that the Treasurer's report was in the Newsletter.

BLOCK OF THE MONTH: Gloria Hartley went over the Block of the Month, members with completed blocks showed them. Applique and quilting suggestions will be given each month. Pieced block alternate is your choice, possible layout for snowball and yardage for wallhanging, twin, queen and table runner will be given next month.

SUPER SATURDAY: Pat Baker announced the success of Super Saturday and thanked the teachers. Ornaments and tree skirt made during Super Sat. were shown.

RAFFLE QUILT: Maddie Horr requested additional help quilting the Raffle Quilt. Sign-ups and guest home(s) for the quilt needed for December.

SPECIAL EVENTS: Linda Von Ahn spoke about November 7th bus trip to Westford, Mass. for Quilter's Gathering. 15 signed up, 30 needed.

PROGRAMS: Debi Wong-Gray explained the February Meeting - highlight on Entrepreneurs. In March, Virginia Avery will be speaker with a Fashion Show.

HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE: Caroline Kearney announced that she had inventory sheets for the Holiday Boutique.

QUILT SHOW: Eleanor Scarcella indicated that she was looking for a volunteer to work with her as the Quilt Show JFK High School Liaison for the coming Quilt Show. This volunteer would then be involved in the transition and be the Liaison for the 1994 Quilt Show.

RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: Lauran Tyler indicated there was room for a few sign ups on one November Work-shop - check with Mary Rossetti. Progressive quilts were almost finished, some quilting to be done. New progressive "Postcards" ready to be worked on. Journals kept during making of Progressive Quilts were available for viewing. Broadway Dolls were on display at Resource and Education table.

Nancy explained Progressive Quilts, join in, no right or wrong.

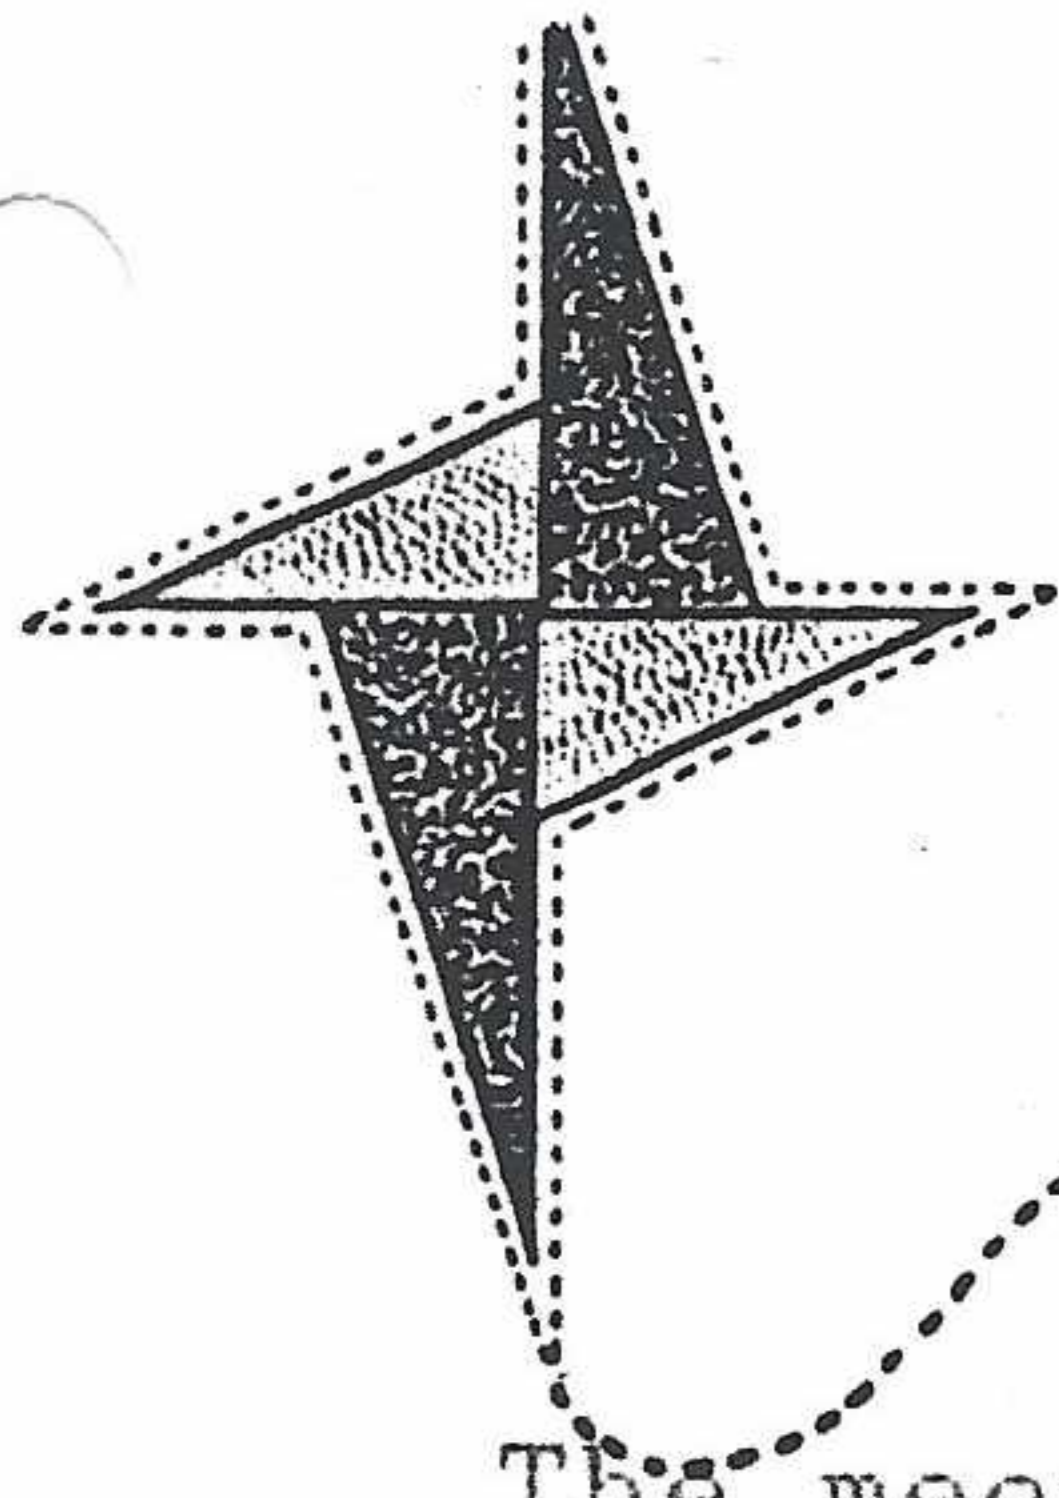

MEMBERSHIP: Bernice Strauber announced we had 161 members and 6 guests at the meeting.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:00 PM and was followed by Raffle, Fabric Raffle, and Show and Tell. The Member of the Month, Lori Vancore, was introduced. Followed by the guest speaker and her program, Jill Liddell.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson

Northern Star Quilters' Guild, Ltd.

P.O. Box 232 Somers N.Y. 10589

MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING - SEPT. 15, 1992

The meeting was called to order at 7:47 P.M. by Joyce Sullivan.

The new Board Members were introduced.

The reading of the minutes will be dispensed, as per last years motion.

The Treasurer's report was filed as recorded.

Broadway Dolls to benefit AID's patients were on display.

This year's Challenge was outlined in Newsletter and copies of the Challenge Rules were available on the Raffle Table.

The Challenge Committee was introduced.

Super Saturday on the way on October 3. Good sign up. Projects will be donated to the Putnam Hospital Charity.

Reduced prices on Guild workshops were explained.

-SPECIAL EVENTS: Linda von Ahn spoke about the Saturday, Nov. 7 Day trip to Westford, MA.- Quilter's Gathering. The bus trip is $25. per person. Leaving NY 7-7:30 A.M. and returning 9-10 P.M. Trying to obtain 40-45 people for trip.

-SUPER SATURDAY: Pat Baker talked about Super Saturday on Oct. 3. at the Lake Lincolndale Clubhouse. There are AM and PM short workshops. Lunch will be provided. All teachers are volunteers. The items made will be donated to Putnam Hospital for their "Festival of Trees" Charity. The items are used to decorate a tree. Participants will get the instructions for all projects made at the workshops.

-PROGRAMS: Adrienne Yorks^{ink/s} indicated that in addition to the Challenge Program in February, there will be Tables available for business women to use to display their work.

Debi Tong Gray introduced the October's Meeting program which features Japanese Quilts. All raffle items will be "Japanese" items.

-RESOURCE AND EDUCATION: Lauren Tyler introduced the Resource and Education committee members.

The new Workshop fees - $20./members/$30./non-member were explained.

The Broadway Dolls will be sold at the Holiday Boutique in November and then in a NYC Shop. There will be two other doll-in, one to make doll bodies, one to make doll clothes. Patterns for the dolls are $5.

Library rules were printed in the Sept Newsletter. Some books still overdue. Fines were being waived until the Oct Meeting.

Secret Quilting Pals program sign up's were reviewed - (explained in the Sept Newsletter).

Fran Schleif showed the new Progressive Quilt - "Postcards". There are no restrictions and any theme can be used to fill out the "Postcards"

Gloria Hartley introduced the "Block of the Month" for this year (The Snow Ball Block) which is a project leading to the 15th Annual Show in 1994.

The Fabric Raffle will be announced in the newsletter (color and/or type of fabric).

-HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE: Caroline Kearney reviewed the rules for selling items at the NSQG Holiday Boutique on November 14th at Fox Lane High School in Mount Kisco. The items must be fabric or quilt related. Sellers must volunteer to sell for 2 hrs. NYS tax will be collected. 10% is donated to NSQG. The seller prices their own pieces submitted.

OLD BUSINESS: Someone is needed to take over as Historian. Any volunteers should speak to Eleanor Scarpella.

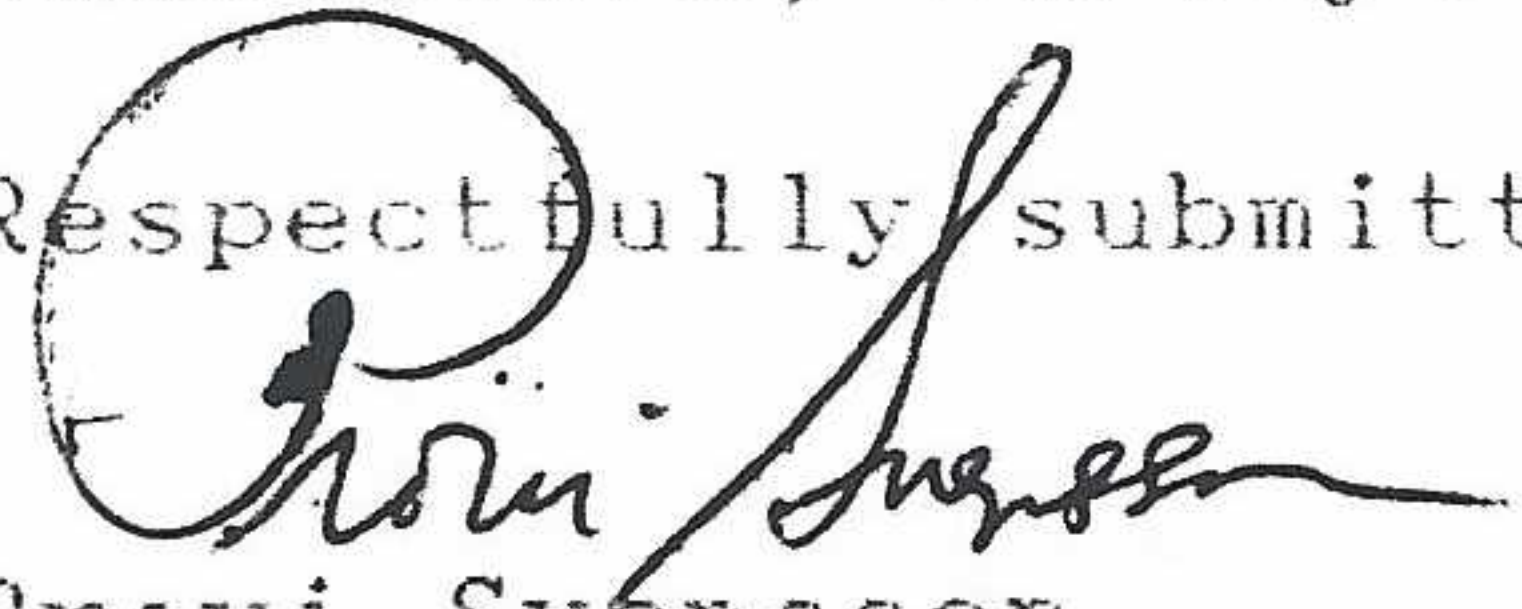

Last Spring Woman's Day requested quilt projects. Any information relating to this should be shared with Joyce Sullivan.

NEW BUSINESS: Inquiry about place to sell craft items made by prison inmates. Any ideas should be brought to the Board.

Brenda Strauss indicated that a basic sewing on machine teacher was needed at ~~Boys~~ in Valhalla for Thursdays 6:30 - 9:30 P.M. The position is paying $24.50 an hour.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:28 P.M. and was followed by Show and Tell and a Panel Discussion entitled "Women and their Quilts: Out of the Bedroom and into the Marketplace". The Panel included Paula Nadelstern, Marilyn Henrion, Robin Schwalb and Susan Faeder.

Respectfully submitted,

Provi Svensson