President's Message

It hardly seems possible that the final meeting of the year is fast approaching. Great speakers, many interesting workshops and of course, members' gorgeous quilts have made this a productive and interesting year. We've come to simply expect our quilt show to be a huge success. Fortunately, we haven't let ourselves down.

I'm pleased to report that our "ducks are in a row" for next year. We voted in an energetic slate of officers and now the committee chairladies are ready to go as well. The list, as of this writing, can be found on page 7. Thanks to those who are taking on a job to help keep the guild running smoothly. You will be rewarded with a great feeling of accomplishment and with the new friendships formed through working together.

All remarks about last month's program were extremely positive. Everyone loved the works and the presentation. We didn't have to look far afield to find this talented group of quilters from neighboring Connecticut. Anita Vecchia is a member and was the driving force behind this fascinating project on Emily Dickinson.

Now, plan ahead regarding our June meeting:

- ☞ Doors open at 6:00 P.M. for the Salad Supper
- ☞ Make your most interesting salad to share
- ☞ Gather all the items and fabrics you no longer want for the Flea Market
- ☞ Bring previously read magazines and books for the library sale.
- ☞ Finish up your workshop projects for the last

"Show and Tell."

See you the 15th. It'll be a good one! ☞

Hospitality

Kathy and I would like to thank everyone for making our job so enjoyable! We have had a great time meeting all of you over coffee and some delectable edibles.

Our last task — June Salad Supper — is back by popular demand! As we mentioned in last month's On Point!, dig out your favorite salad recipe for this closing meeting. Keep in mind portions for 12 are not necessary, six is adequate because everyone brings a dish. Beverages, bread, butter and dessert will be provided.

Dessert will be a new twist. Be prepared to make your own ice cream sundae. If anyone would like to provide a special topping/s, please call Corinne at 914-279-5007, we want to avoid duplication and/or excess* toppings. The hot fudge sauce is being supplied.

We look forward to seeing everyone and your culinary creations on June 15th. ☞

Programs

The Time Has Come!!! Yes, it's time to do some belated Spring cleaning and weeding of your quilting "stuff." Other than the four people who raised their hand at the May meeting, when was the last time you did this kind of weeding? If you're like me, the answer is, "Never!" So, The Time Is Now!

At our June meeting, besides the great food, we'll be having a Quilters' Flea Market. Great bargains will be available for everyone: previously owned quilt magazines @4 for $1, patterns, tools, stencils, ugly fabrics (one quilter's ugly is another quilter's beauty), embellishments (buttons, beads, etc.), bagged fabric scraps, kits, and much more.

Even quilt related gifts (I know you've received one or two you really don't want any more). There'll be $1, $3 and $5 tables set up for the quilt related items and even a Plant table, that was so successful last year. So find an unused carton and start your engines for some major culling.

Think of all the room you'll make for new "stuff." Think of all the unwanted treasures you'll find. With any monies we collect, we will purchase a coffee urn (for real coffee) for the hospitality committee and subscriptions for the Australian and Japanese quilt magazines for the library. Any items left at the end of the meeting will be donated to the quilt classes being held at the Danbury Women's Prison.

Just bring your goodies to the June meeting. We'll have an area set up for "Receiving." Start stashing away dollar bills (Sorry, no plastic).

Please join us for a fun evening. If you have any questions regarding things to bring, please feel free to call Dorothy Scalice at 860-355-3522 or e-mail me at QOW@MSN.COM. ☞

Education

As this year draws to a close, we can think back on the many wonderful workshops where we learned many new techniques and had many challenges. Of course, we will now have more UFO's, but that gives us something to do when we are bored.

Thanks to June Azar, our liaison for the Lincolndale Clubhouse, where we held the Saturday workshop. Now we'll have some permanent storage space at the clubhouse and great new 4x8 foot design walls. (Thanks again, May).

The education committee hopes you will take advantage of the wonderful programs in the coming year. Thanks for all your support. ☞

Novelty Fabric Exchange

Have you ever gone into your fabric "stash," like a woman possessed...hunted through fabric stores ... a woman on a mission... or coveted thy neighbor's silk blouse for just the right piece — just a tiny piece of the right fabric? If you are lurking about, scissors in hand to snip "just a little" have we got the place for you!

Stop following your tastefully dressed friend around and join us in September for the Novelty Fabric Exchange. We only need about six people to make it work well.

Please contact me by July 1 if you are interested. I will give you the details — and you can have the summer to check out your own stash and shop a little. ☞

The June meeting is coming up which means the end of another fantastic year as a member of this great guild of ours. I've enjoyed serving as the VP of membership for the past two years.

I'm looking forward to another great year of just being a member and attending the meetings. It will be filled with exciting programs and speakers to enlighten and educate our membership. Can't wait!!!

The June newsletter is where we take the opportunity to thank everyone who has helped us perform our jobs during this past year.

During September and October when the lines were long and attendance was high, my excellent helpers helped those evenings go smoothly. They are: Cathy Neri, Liz Doyle, Joan Weth, Joan Crawford and Pauline Joseph.

Joan and Pauline sat next to me at the membership table, meeting after meeting, helping and assisting our members with their knowledge and resourcefulness.

My very best special thanks also goes to Pauline Joseph who was by my side at the membership table for each and every meeting. She was definitely my right hand and sometimes my left as well.

Alice Dokken is taking over my position next season and knew that, if elected, she would be doing this job. She, therefore, pitched in to help out at the membership table for several months. My appreciation goes out to her.

Kim Silva-Lepe came aboard to help the new members absorb all the happenings at our meeting, direct them, answer all their questions and was there to offer companionship. Her "New Member" table was a real hit.

My special thanks to Alice Garrard for putting out an excellent newsletter. A job well done, Alice!

I would also like to thank all my fellow Board Members for their cooperation and friendship. We all worked together to make our guild one in which we can all be proud. I, for one, am very proud of our guild.

My thanks also goes to all our members who were cooperative in helping me to do my job. I value you all.

Just one other notice. I will be accepting checks (no cash) at the June meeting for next year's dues. The checks will not be deposited until July.

Please make the checks out ahead of time to NSQG for $35.00. Or, if you prefer, you

*INDICATES A NEWLY FILLED POSITION

From the Editor:

This has been my second one year stint as On Point! editor and it has been great. Before it's time to turn over the reins, I want to thank those who have made being editor so rewarding.

The On Point! staff:

How lucky I was to have asked Nancy Hantman to produce a column on events and web sites. You can imagine my glee when I went to my electronic mailbox each month...days before the column was due...and there it was! Her information is accurate, diverse, and serendipitous. Plus, she always knows which of our talented members has been nationally recognized.

Fran Thomas efficiently mails out the newsletter each month. I always thought that this job was a chore, but Fran takes everything in stride. There was more than one month when we were running late, but Fran always managed to take up the slack. Each month she meets our wonderful printer, Ron Baier, in mysterious locations and they get mailed out pronto.

In the summer, I placed an ad in On Point! looking for a copy editor. I thought I was clever by phrasing it as a want ad. Well, quite a few members thought that they could actually quit their jobs and use their quilt skills and earn a living, to boot. After Elizabeth Kaftan found out it was just copy editing for On Point!, she agreed to help me out. What a gal!! Busy with a full time job, young family and of course, quilting early each morning, she still managed to fax me back my rough newsletter, all cleaned up. Our e-mails and faxes have crossed many thousands of miles.

Pat Bartimoccia has been a joy to work with. She produces the labels that Fran needs each month. She has been cooperative, supportive and professional, Sondra Shapiro, Cobb Stewart and Lois Jackson were there to help out when we needed the benefit of their skills. Thanks, so much.

I especially want to thank those board members who e-mailed me their columns each month. They made the job so much easier than it was years ago. The Board worked so well together, all for the common good of the Guild.

Thanks to all the guild-members for their words of encouragement and support. What a great group of women!

Carrie, you are in for a treat. ☺
