A Message From the President

Many thanks to Nancy Mirman for presiding at the October meeting. All reports were good, as I knew they would be. Because of last minute program changes, the meeting schedule was reversed last month in order to inspire more workshop sign-up through viewing Betty Kiser's quilts. This month we return to having the business meeting first because there is always so much follow-up that needs to take place during the break.

I did have a chance to see the November workshop samples that you saw at the October meeting. Super! Both classes sound like a "freeing" experience, and really not difficult. All of you working women, be aware that one class is on Sunday. So come have a good time and try a new approach. Remember, these are classes. You are learning and experimenting, not making a family heirloom in a day. Break out of old habits and enjoy new freedom.

Time is passing quickly. The December meeting is the last chance to show your completed New Year's Resolution quilts. If anyone showed theirs at October Show & Tell, please let me know so I can give credit where credit is due. So far, only two quilts out of 17 resolutions have been completed. (Mine are still among the Uncompleted, I'm sorry to say.) But, I did make the drawing for my Challenge while I vacationed. How is yours progressing? There is still time to pick up the fabric and make a Challenge if you haven't done so yet.

This is November—Thanksgiving. Have a happy one. I will say thanks, among other things, for having found quilting. It allows me to expand my abilities, enlarge my friendships and always have something comforting to fill my time.

Joyce Sullivan

Hospitality

What a terrific assortment of goodies we had on the hospitality table at the October meeting. So many members marveled at all the tantalizing treats.

Many folks outdid themselves with homemade goodies and one person was certainly in the autumn season and brought apple cider. To all members whose last names started with A, B and C, our most sincere thanks go out to you. We are counting on the members whose last names start with D, E and F to supply the snacks for the November meeting. Again, please don't forget your mugs and if you do bring in something to share, please check the hospitality table at the end of the meeting so that you can pick up your serving dish.

Joanne and Kate

Membership

PICK UP YOUR NEW MEMBERSHIP LIST FOR 1999-2000 AT THE NOVEMBER MEETING.

I am preparing to finalize the membership list for the year. In fact, if you are reading this newsletter you are on the new list. Sorry that we have to do this but there has to be a cut off time or we would never get a list. I will add names to the master list and publish late joiners in the months to come. Call me if you have a question about any of the information.

I will have the new name badges for new members at the meeting—see Pat Bartimoccia for your blue folder with information for new members. Membership cards are available at the table when you come in. You have to pick them up because we cannot mail any of this material to you. If you need a new badge, please let me know and I will bring it to the next meeting.

I know that everyone is in a hurry when you come to the meeting but it is important to have you sign in and especially to register any guest that you may be bringing. Guests are welcome anytime for a $5 fee.

That $5 is deducted from the price of membership if they join after that. See you at the November meeting—please wear your membership badges so that we can identify one another.

Welcome new members this month: Mary Ann Johannsen, Helen Andrew, JoAnna Giardina, Elizabeth Poole, Diane Puotinen, Cathy Carothers, Judi Davis, Patricia Champlin, Linda Gilles.

Program—November

We're looking forward to Dianne Hire's lecture "Discovery of Quilting" on November 16th. It's Dianne's personal story of her love of fabric and her imagination expressed through quilting. It will be a slide lecture and trunk show. You will see her work unfold as she progressed from first quilts to last quilts and everything in between.

The workshop samples she sent suggest that this program will be a real treat.

Before moving to Belfast, Maine in 1981, she was a couture dress buyer and NEVER, EVER considered quilting to be a possibility for her life.

Looking forward to seeing all of you on Tuesday, until then...

Keep on quilting,
Eleanor and Kathy

Holiday Boutique

We had 20 vendors sign up for the Holiday Boutique! Many thanks for your participation. The volunteers and people who stayed all day certainly helped to make the boutique a success. We could not have done it without their help. Checks to the vendors will be coming as quickly as we can get them out.

Janette Loughlin
Chairperson

It's Not Too Late!!!

Yes, there still is time to buy your millennium fabric and make a challenge quilt. You CAN do it—I know you can!!! Fabric and rules will be available at the November meeting. If you can't make the meeting, call me (914-277-5210) and we'll make other arrangements.

If you already bought challenge fabric and need more, you can buy it at the reduced rate of $1.00.

Nancy Mirman
Challenge Committee Chairman

A Note from the Editor

Thanks to the chairpeople who submit their articles for the newsletter. I need a special favor this month since our December meeting is a week earlier due to the holidays. It takes about 3-5 days for production (composing the newspaper and proofreading) and then 4 days at the printer, about 3 hours to label, stamp and tape, and then 1-2 days to reach you after it is dropped off at the post office.

Please send me your articles or give them to me at the General Meeting if at all possible. I am hoping to get the December issue to the printer the Monday after Thanksgiving weekend.

NSQG Members Take Top Honors at Dutchess Heritage Quilt Show IX

Several of our guild members earned ribbons and other prizes at the Ninth Biennial Dutchess Heritage Quilt show held in Poughkeepsie on October 9 & 10. Maxine Oliver led the charge, bringing home Best of Show Honors with her lovely hand-applique and hand-quilted bed quilt "Always." This piece was also featured in an article about the show published in the Poughkeepsie Journal. Beth Carney won the second prize in the raffle, a new sewing machine donated by Sew N Vac of Poughkeepsie. Harriet Bertsche came home with a completed quilt top as the winner of the block contest drawing.

In addition, the following guild members received ribbons at the NQA judged show:

Pieced Bed Quilts

Third Place— "A New Path for Carolyn" by Mary Rosetti

Pieced Wallhanging

First Place— "Christmas Snowflakes" by Ann Holden*

Other Techniques Wallhanging

First Place— "Peony Basket" by Carole Peterson*

Group Quilts

Third Place— "Douglas, You Make My Heart Sing!" by Karen Abramson*

Honorable Mention— "Tipper's Tyrolean? No, Tippers a Tabby" by Cathy Neri

Machine Quilted Wallhanging

Second Place— "I Finally Found All My Marbles" by Cathy Neri

Professionally Machine Quilted

Honorable Mention— "A Christmas House" by Ann Holden*

Our congratulations to you all.

Workshops — November

Last year, the NSQG Board decided that more workshops should be held on weekends for the convenience of our members with full-time jobs — And the upcoming workshop with Dianne S. Hire will be the first weekend offering this guild-year.

Prove us right, and sign up! Dianne has a great sense of humor, and the samples she was kind enough to send us (did you see them at the October meeting?) are simply scrumptious!!!

Organdy Ribbon Transparency Sunday, November 14th, 10 am to 4 pm

Create an elegant plaid wallhanging and do it without piecing . . . hmmm. . . don't you wonder how to do that? By using Bali-type fabrics and organdy ribbons, that's exactly what we'll do. Quickly, you will be able to create a small wallhanging (approximately 17" x 17") in plaid transparencies and subtle shading overlays. The piece you design will be magnificently gorgeous.

REQUIREMENT: Being friendly with your sewing machine which has the capability of satin-stitch embroidery. There is an additional "packet fee" of $10, payable directly to Ms. Hire.

Come Play With Me! Monday, November 15th, 9:30 am to 3:30 pm

Need to lighten up? Not having any quilting fun? Tired of prissy little piecing? Then this workshop is for you! Intuitive and improvisational, we'll play liberating games at your sewing machine. We'll slice and dice fabrics, trade slivers of blocks, hunt for bright colors just begging for a place to land in a quilt and return home with a few oxymoron blocks, in random order. Can't you just see it now? Fabrics all over the floor!

REQUIREMENT: Excellent sense of Humor! . . . and, oh, yes, a good friendship with your sewing machine and basic knowledge of piecing.

Here's what to do if you want to sign up for one of these fabulous workshops:

1. Prepare a check for $30 per workshop. Date the check with the month of the workshop.
2. Enclose a SASE for each workshop, so we can send you a supply list and directions to the workshop location.
3. Write the workshop name (not just the instructor's name) on both check and SASE.
4. Mail everything to our registrar, Linda Von Ahn, 30 Greenfield Road, Mahopac, New York 10541.

You can also sign up for a workshop at any monthly meeting — however, try to register early to avoid the disappointment of a filled workshop. At the meetings, information and envelopes will be available for your convenience. Payment reserves your seat in the workshop. Your check will be refunded only if you provide a replacement, there is a waiting list, or the class is canceled.

A monitor is needed for each workshop. The monitor's job is really easy, and you get to take the class for free! If you'd like to find out more about being a monitor, contact Linda at 914-628-5380.

In the months ahead, we'll have workshops with June Colburn (March), whose lovely oriental-style quilts you may have seen on TV's "Simply Quilts!" and Sally Schneider (April), the "Painless Borders" quilter — so much to look forward to!

A World of Quilts XXI—May 6-7, 2000

Report from the Quilt Show Committee

With the millennium quilt show coming up this May, your Show Committee is planning to bring together a special display of older and antique quilts to be shown in contrast to the present day quilts. We will have a special blending of old and new as we go forward into the next century. If you have any antique quilts that you would like to display, please contact Terry Melillo, Invitational Quilt Chairman.

Don't forget to add your quilts to the quilt display—and the millennium challenge—how about the block contest? And for those unfinished projects—we have just the place for them....

Please don't forget to vote for the raffle recipient at the November meeting. The winning charity will gladly welcome the proceeds from the beautiful raffle quilt.

And speaking of raffle quilts—anyone have any stray blocks for the 2001 raffle quilt? Please get them to Betty Edwards.

Libby Lebman and Velda Newman will be the featured speakers at our show and will be giving workshops. Now is the time to plan ahead for this wonderful opportunity.

Marie Sugar
Quilt Show Chair

Quilt Show Charity Raffle Nominees

The following organizations have been suggested to receive the proceeds from our Raffle Quilt 2000. Ballots will be distributed at the November meeting. Please select one charity.

1. Guiding Eyes for the Blind

Provides independence and mobility, companionship and security for the blind and visually impaired individuals through their association with trained dogs. Their headquarters and residential training center is located in Yorktown Heights, New York.

2. Housatonic Habitat for Humanity

Helps build homes for those lacking decent shelter in the Greater Danbury area. Their goal is four homes per year by the year 2001 and twelve homes per year by 2005.

3. Gilda's Club of Westchester

Bring people living with cancer out of the individual and family isolation that often accompanies diagnosis and treatment. This meeting place will offer support groups, lectures, workshops and social events in a conveniently located, home-like setting.

Lynn Chernuchin

Quilt Block Contest

The theme for this year's block contest is: "Little Green Things." The block must measure an accurate 12 1/2" square, including seam allowance. Do not bind or finish the edges! Use prewashed, 100% cotton fabric. Your block must contain a "green thing."

All entrants will receive one of our beautiful show pins and the finalists will receive fabric packets. The finalists' blocks will be assembled into a quilt top which will be awarded in a random drawing to one of our finalists.

The deadline for submitting your entry is March 1, 2000. No exceptions! Entry forms will be available at the monthly meetings.

Super Saturday—March 25, 2000

Place: First Presbyterian Church of Katonah

Plans are underway to make this the best Super Saturday ever. The date, March 25, 2000, has been secured and so has the place. Once again, the First Presbyterian Church has allowed us to use their space for Super Saturday. So far, three wonderful guild members have agreed to share their talents with us. They are:

Pat Bartimoccia, who will be teaching us how to make and quilt with "Crazy Uneven Squares"

Harriet Burtsche, who will be teaching Stained Glass Slash and Dash, and Linda Ostrander, who will be teaching Stamping with Fabric Paint.

As wonderful as these members are, they cannot handle everyone who wants to participate in the great learning and sharing event that is Super Saturday. Therefore we need HELP!!!

In the past (1998), we had four half-day and four whole day classes while in 1999 we had eight whole day classes. Please volunteer to teach and share your expertise with your fellow quilters for either a whole or half day course.

Please talk to me at the meetings, call me at (914) 723-9344 or e-mail me at ssrieber@worldnet.att.net with ideas, volunteering, suggestions.
